"Rule 73A".—"The term of office of a President, Vice-President and a member of Panchayat shall be computed from the date of its first meeting to be fixed by the Director of Panchayats".

Simla-4, the 28th March, 1962

No. Pnt. 70-162/56-II.—The following draft Bye-Laws for Gram Panchayats which the Director of Panchayats, Himachal Pradesh proposes to make in exercise of the powers vested in him under section 136 of the Himachal Pradesh Panchayat Raj Act, 1952 are hereby published in the Himachal Pradesh Gazette for inviting objections/suggestions, as required under sub-rule (1) of rule 310 of the Panchayat Rules.

Any person who has any objection or suggestion to make may send the same to the Director of Panchayats, Himachal Pradesh within one month from the date of issue of this Notification.

DRAFT BYE-LAWS

(a) Short title and commencement.—These Bye-Laws may be called "The Gram Panchayat Bye-Laws".

(b) They shall come into force with immediate effect.

1. No person shall defecate within the radius of 100 yards from the drinking water source and in no case in any public place. In cases of infants, sick, and infirm the head of the family shall be responsible for the disposal of the night soil.

2. No person or persons shall take bath, wash clothes, clean utensils or clean any part of his/her or their body or bodies which may result in pollution and contamination of water source which is used for drinking purposes.

3. The Gram Panchayat shall prohibit members or servant of any family in which there is a suspected case of Cholera, or any other communicable disease from fetching water from any source used for drinking purposes. The Gram Panchayat shall arrange supply of water to the members of such a family and servants before passing an order under this bye-law.

4. The Panchayat shall prohibit the use of water from any Bowli or spring for any specific period where it is feared that the use of such water is likely to cause danger to the health.

5. The water thus declared prohibited shall not be used unless the Gram Panchayat vacates its order to this effect or declares the water fit for use in a manner to make it known to every inhabitant of the area.

6. Should any building or a land be in a filthy, unhealthy or dilapidated condition, the Panchayat shall require the owner or the occupier thereof to clean or put it otherwise in a proper state and thereafter to maintain its condition.

7. No person or persons having his or their houses on either side of the public street in the area of Gram Panchayat shall be allowed the discharge of water from his or their houses which might cause the spread of any sort of disease or cause inconvenience to residents of the locality or passers by.

8. No disposal of the refuse from the cow-sheds shall be made except at places reserved for the purpose and the place shall not be nearer than 200 yards from the human habitation. The refuse shall not be allowed to remain near cow-shed vicinity for more than five days at the most otherwise it will lead to fly breeding.

9. No offensive matter, rubbish and night soil shall be allowed to be thrown above except the places provided for the purpose.

10. Any person having his shop or stall in any market or fair, shall clean up daily before 10 A.M. and shall not allow any rubbish, dirt, withered leaves or other abnoxious matter remain outside the receptacles provided for the purpose.

11. No person shall store in his house hay, wood or any other inflammable material except in a separate store room or hut allowing a clear space of six feet from the surrounding buildings.

12. Every school within the jurisdiction of the Panchayat shall have sanitary provisions like latrines and urinals. (It does not matter if schools are under the Territorial Council. The Panchayat can take up the matter with Territorial Council if these things are missing in a school building).

13. No person shall make excavations within 200 yards from the outermost house in the village which may result in stagnation of water and may breed mosquitoes and other insects.

14. At the outbreak of any of the communicable diseases in the Panchayat area, information thereof shall immediately be notified to the nearest Primary Health Centre and the disease shall be reported to the Secretary of the Panchayat by the head of the family or nearest relative where a case has occurred.

The Public Health Staff at the outbreak of such an epidemic shall get all the inhabitants of the area vaccinated or inoculated against these diseases with the co-operation of the Panchayat of the area.

15. Every resident of the village shall report any leprosy case found in the village to the nearest Primary Health Centre.

16. Every inhabitant of the Panchayat area and other roofed structure including cattle shed, shall get his house sprayed and report the occurrence of any case of fever in his house to the surveillance worker of the area.

17. Every individual in the Panchayat area shall get himself tested and vaccinated against T.B. under the Mass B.C.G. campaign. Any case of T.B. in the area shall be reported to the Primary Health Centre.

18. The occurrence of notifiable diseases like enteric fever, measles, small pox, diphtheria, cholera, etc., etc., shall at once be reported to the Doctor incharge of the Primary Health Centre and a report to that effect shall be sent to the Director of Health Services, Himachal Pradesh, Simla.

19. No person shall dispose of corpses and carcasses at any place or places except those set apart from the purpose by the Panchayat.

20. The Panchayat shall be competent to ask the owner of an animal/animals suffering from contagious disease to keep the diseased animal/animals separate from other animals and to restrict or prohibit the movement of such animal/animals.

21. No person shall use any public street or public place within the jurisdiction of the gram panchayat for his personal ends without the permission of the panchayat.

22. No person shall set up a shop, stall, merry go round or any show for public amusement in any market place or fair managed by the gram panchayat without the written permission of the gram panchayat and on payment of rent assessed by the panchayat.

23. It shall be the responsibility of the villagers through whose village a panchayat road or path passes or in whose village bridge is situated, to repair and maintain the same SUOMOTO or at the direction of the panchayat. Any person refusing to render his share of contribution shall be liable to pay a penalty of Rs. 10 in addition to the amount of his share.

PENALTY.

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 136 of the Himachal Pradesh Panchayat Raj Act, the Director of Panchayats hereby directs that a person found guilty by the Nyaya Panchayat of a breach of any of the above bye-laws shall be punishable with a fine which may extend to Rs. 10 and if the breach is a continuing one with a further fine which may extend to Re. 1 for every day after the date of the first conviction during which the offender is proved to have persisted in the offence.

NOTIFICATION

Simla-4, the 20th March, 1962

No. 1-7/60-LR-II.—The Goa, Daman and Diu (Administration) Ordinance 1962 (No. 2 of 1962) recently promulgated by the President of India and published in the Gazette of India, Extraordinary Part II Section I, dated 5-3-1962 is hereby republished in the Himachal Pradesh Administration Gazette for the information of the general public.

S. R. MAHANTAN,
Under Secretary (Judicial).

THE GOA, DAMAN AND DIU (ADMINISTRATION) ORDINANCE, 1962

No. 2 of 1962

Promulgated by the President in the Thirteenth Year of the Republic of India.

An Ordinance to provide for the administration of the, Union territory of Goa, Daman and Diu and for matters connected therewith.

Whereas the territories comprised in Goa, Daman and Diu have been acquired with effect from the twentieth day of December, 1961, and have, by virtue of sub-clause (c) of clause (3) of article 1 of the Constitution, been comprised within the territory of India;

And whereas it is expedient to make provision for the administration of the said territories;

And whereas Parliament is not in session and the President is satisfied that circumstances exist which render it necessary for him to take immediate action;

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (1) of article 123 of the Constitution, the President is pleased to promulgate the following Ordinance:—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) This Ordinance may be called the Goa, Daman and Diu (Administration) Ordinance, 1962.

(2) It shall come into force at once.

2. Definitions.—In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) "Administrator" means the Administrator of Goa, Daman and Diu;

(b) "appointed day" means the twentieth day of December, 1961;

(c) "Goa, Daman and Diu" means the Union territory of Goa, Daman and Diu.

3. Officers and functionaries in relation to Goa, Daman and Diu.—Without prejudice to the powers of the Central Government to appoint from time to time such officers and authorities as may be necessary for the administration of Goa, Daman and Diu, all judges, magistrates and other officers and authorities who, immediately before the commencement of this Ordinance, were exercising lawful functions in connection with the administration of Goa, Daman and Diu or any part thereof shall, unless otherwise directed at any time by the Central Government in relation to any such judge, magistrate or other officer or authority, or until other provision is made by law, continue to exercise in connection with such administration their respective functions in the same manner and to the same extent as before such commencement with such altered designation, if any, as that Government may determine.

4. Continuance of existing laws and their adaptation.—(1) All laws in force immediately before the appointed day in Goa, Daman and Diu or any part thereof shall continue to be in force therein until amended or repealed by a competent Legislature or other competent authority.

(2) For the purpose of facilitating the application of any such law in relation to the administration of Goa, Daman and Diu as a Union Territory and for the purpose of bringing the provisions of any such law into accord with the provisions of the Constitution, the Central Government may within two years from the appointed day, by order, make such adaptations and modifications, whether by way of repeal or amendment, as may be necessary or expedient and thereupon every such law shall have effect subject to the adaptations and modifications so made.

5. Power to extend enactments Goa, Daman and Diu.—The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, extend with such restrictions or modifications as it thinks fit, to Goa, Daman and Diu any enactment which is in force in a State at the date of the notification.

6. Power to construe laws.—For the purpose of facilitating the application of any law in relation to Goa, Daman and Diu, any court or other authority may construe any such law in such manner not affecting the substance, as may be necessary or proper to adapt it to the matter before the court or other authority.

7. Validation of certain action and indemnity of officers for certain acts.—(1) All things done and all action taken (including any acts of executive authority, proceedings, decrees and sentences) in or with respect to Goa, Daman and Diu, on or after the appointed day and before the commencement of this Ordinance, by the Administrator or any other officer of Government, whether civil or military, or by any other person acting under the orders of the Administrator or such officer, which have been done or taken in good faith and in a reasonable belief that they were necessary for the peace and good government of Goa, Daman and Diu, shall be as valid and operative as if they had been done or taken in accordance with law.

(2) No suit or other legal proceeding whatsoever, whether civil or criminal, shall lie in any court of law against the Administrator or any other officer of Government, whether civil or military, or against any other person acting under the orders of the Administrator or such other officer for, on account of, or in respect of, anything done or any action taken in Goa, Daman and Diu or any part thereof on or after the appointed day and before the commencement of this Ordinance, which has been done or taken in good faith and in a reasonable belief that it was necessary for the peace and good government of Goa, Daman and Diu:

Provided that if any such suit or other legal proceeding has been instituted before the commencement of this Ordinance, it shall, on such commencement, abate.

8. Power to remove difficulties.—(1) If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Ordinance or in connection with the administration of Goa, Daman and Diu, the Central Government may, by order, make such further provision as appears to it to be necessary or expedient for removing the difficulty:

Provided that no such power shall be exercised after the expiry of two years from the appointed day.

(2) Any order under sub-section (1) may be made so as to be retrospective to any date not earlier than the appointed day.

RAJENDRA PRASAD,
President.

R. C. S. SARKAR,
Secretary to the Government of India.
